The Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Staying informed: If you do not have Flocknote, I ask that you to please consider getting the app so you are "in the know!" To secure the Flocknote app, just go to stpacc.org/flocknote or text STPACC to the number 84576.

Stretch Yourself During Lent:

Lent is very much a season intended to help us to be renewed in our baptismal call. How will you make Lent meaningful for you and your family? There are so very many opportunities in the days and weeks ahead including the Columbus Catholic Men's Conference (February 24). It's not too late to attend the conference. I encourage our High School youth to consider attending a retreat entitled Made Whole on March 1-2. A link to Information about the retreat can be found on page 9. Our Annual Parish Mission, entitled "This Is My Body" will be March 17-19. Find more information on page 7.

Friday Fish Fries and Stations:

Our Knights of Columbus are again hosting their fabulous Friday Fish Fries during Lent. Bring your family and friends to Miller Hall (the school cafeteria), anytime from 5:00 and 7:30 PM. Dine in or carry out. Also, on Fridays at 7:30 PM we will pray the Stations of the Cross in the Church. Praying the stations is a spiritual pilgrimage, a beautiful way to reflect on the passion of our Lord. I hope you will join us.

Lenten Resources from the Augustine Institute:

I encourage you to sign up for the Augustine Institute Lenten resources by going to daily.formed.org/lent. If you have not yet accessed your free subscription to Formed.org, head to stpacc.org/formed.

Our Sunday Offering: I want to sincerely thank the very many who regularly give of their time, talent, and financial support to our parish. WeShare Online Giving is a secure, and convenient platform. Just text stpaulohio to the number 800-950-9952 or go online to www.stpacc.org/donate. If you have any questions about your parish offertory or WeShare, please contact Parish Accountant Deb Hawking at either dhawking@stpacc.org or 614-882-2109 ext. 229.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Wilson

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

No Meat for You!!

I have a confession to make. I hate seafood. All of it. Whether it is the taste, the texture, or the smell, I cannot eat it. It is not from a lack of trying. My wife likes for me to try different things before I say that I do not like them. I can honestly say to quote a “medical professional” from my childhood:

*I do not like them in a house.
I do not like them with a mouse.
I do not like them here or there.
I do not like them anywhere.
I do not like shrimp and fish.*

Trying new things is only fair, as I see myself doing this with my children regarding broccoli. Growing up sans seafood, many people would ask me, perplexed, “What do you eat on Fridays during Lent?” I always thought this was an odd question. On Fridays during Lent, do all the vegetables disappear? Are there no salads? Where did the pasta go? What do vegetarians eat on these days? Is the only food on the planet fish on these seven Fridays? It still perplexes me to this day when people ask me. So, if you ask me what I eat on Fridays during Lent, be prepared for a bewildered look on my face. Nevertheless, this does bring up a great question. Why are we not supposed to eat meat on Fridays, and more importantly, why are we prohibited on Fridays during Lent?

First and foremost, we should recall that Catholics are obliged to refrain from eating meat every Friday during the year (see Canon 1251). There are, though, as is often the case with canon law, exceptions: unless the Conference of Bishops decides otherwise or a particular Friday happens to be a Solemnity. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has decided to allow Catholics to eat meat on Fridays outside of Lent if — and here’s the kicker — they perform a different act of penance in its place. I know, crazy, right? So, every Friday outside of Lent, when you are enjoying your medium rare filet mignon with crumbled bleu cheese topping, you should be thinking about another act of penance you can perform in its place.

Second, we should note that we are not required to eat fish on Fridays; we are required to abstain from meat. In Latin, we are told to abstain from carnis, which from the most ancient of times has always meant the meat of things that walk on the ground. This practice dates from as early as the first century.

There are many people—even today—who claim Catholics eat fish on Fridays because one of the medieval popes wanted to help support the fishmongers, an entirely false claim. There is, however, some semblance of history to this claim, but about the Church of England. In 1563, Queen Elizabeth I, the daughter of King Henry VIII, mandated fasting from meat on Wednesdays specifically to support the fishing industry. Catholics eat fish on Fridays because they cannot eat meat (and do not want to eat a meal of only grains, fruits, or vegetables).

So, let’s go back to abstinence from meat on Fridays. Why does the Church abstain from meat, and why on Fridays? Meat is known as a food of the rich. By abstaining from its delightful smell and delicious taste, we, as members of the Church, enter into a bit of what Christ did. He entered into the poverty of humanity so that our humanity might be conquered for God in the full “yes” to him.

So, too, we deny ourselves the riches of this world to conquer with Christ our fallen humanity and the devil who prowls around looking to destroy us. Only in denying ourselves of these passing riches can we receive the riches of life with God. And why Fridays? Friday has always been a special day to become poor with Christ. On Friday, Jesus humbled himself to the point of death on the cross for our salvation. We have always regarded this day as a reminder to practice Christ’s perfect “yes” to the Father. It is also a day to suffer with Christ for the sanctification of the Church. The Church, therefore, gives us this rule not to control us but to remind us to detach ourselves from things that are passing away so that we might receive eternal things—life, love, and the joy of God. Any good and loving parent would command the same of his or her children, not to control them, but out of love. In a recent pastoral letter, Bishop Fernandes encourages (not obliges) us to refrain from eating meat every Friday for the sins committed against the unborn.

So, during these upcoming Fridays during Lent, know that a double cheeseburger from Five Guys will sound even better to you than it would on a Tuesday. Temptation! When you cannot have something, you want it even more (much like Chick-fil-A on Sundays). When temptation occurs, and you are at Miller Hall enjoying the Knights of Columbus Fish Fry, know I am somewhere enjoying a nice bowl of lettuce.

Come and See Weekend at the Pontifical College Josephinum

The Pontifical College Josephinum, in Columbus, Ohio, has scheduled a "Come and See" Live-In weekend for March 7-10, 2024. The weekend has been set aside to allow young men (high school juniors, seniors, and college-aged students) to visit the seminary for a few days. Live-in participants will experience seminary prayer life, classes, communal worship, and interaction with current seminarians, faculty, and staff. Live-in weekends include introductory presentations on discernment, student life, and the college seminary formation program.

The weekend begins with arrival at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 7, and concludes with departure at noon on Sunday, March 10. All meals and recreation are included. There is no charge to participate. For more information, contact the Vocations Office, 614-221-5565, or email vocations@columbuscatholic.org or contact your parish priest.

Reflecting on the Gospel for the First Sunday in Lent, February 18, 2024

First Reading: Genesis 9:8-15; Second Reading: 1 Peter 3:18-22; Gospel: Mark 1:12-15

What an amazing event we reflect upon today. Jesus, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity humbled Himself in two ways in the passage quoted above. First, He allowed Himself to endure the temptations of satan. Second, He permitted His very own creation, the good angels, to minister to Him in His human form.

First of all, recall that satan is a fallen angel. He was created by God and was created good. But the Book of Revelation (12:4) indicates that one-third of the created angels were cast out of Heaven to roam the earth. These demons act under the direction of the highest fallen angel, satan. Thus, according to the passage above, it was satan himself who tempted Jesus in the desert. Additionally, Jesus permitted the good angels to minister to Him in His human nature. These acts reveal the perfection of the virtue of humility within the humanity of our Lord.

According to Saint Thomas Aquinas, angels were created for three primary reasons. The first is for the purpose of worship. Worship of God brings about communion with God and enables perfect love to flow back and forth from God to each angelic being. Second, angels enact the will of God in all things. This includes the implementation of the laws of nature and the imparting of the grace that Christ won on the Cross. Third, God uses angels as messengers. Scripture records various ways that the angels spoke to the prophets, to our Blessed Mother, to Saint Joseph and to others. Saint Thomas Aquinas also believed that each of us is given a particular guardian angel whose role is not only to protect us but also to communicate the will of God to us.

As God, Jesus was the Creator of all angelic beings with the Father and the Holy Spirit. As man, Jesus was the recipient of both the ministry of the good angels and the attacks of the fallen angels. By humbly subjecting Himself to the natural powers of these angelic creatures, Jesus was also teaching us that we must do the same.

One of the primary natural powers of both the good and bad angels is the power of influence and suggestive thought. Angelic beings have the ability to put before your imagination ideas meant to either influence you for the good (the good angels) or to deceive you and lead you into sin (the bad angels). These communications are real, and we should be aware of them. In his book, The Spiritual Exercises, Saint Ignatius of Loyola devotes much time and energy to the ministry of angels. He teaches how to distinguish the lies and deceptions of the fallen angels from the consoling direction communicated by the good angels. In many ways, our Gospel passage today, by which Jesus submitted Himself to the temptations and ministry of the angels, lends much support to the importance of trying to understand how these angelic creatures influence us. For more on this, see the book Probing the Depths: Ignatian Lessons and Meditations Arranged According to the Liturgical Year.

Reflect, today, upon the amazing truth that both angels and demons are constantly active in your life, seeking to influence you. As you ponder their spiritual role in your life, consider the various ways you can learn more about them. Speak to your guardian angel. Ask for the intercession of the highest of angels. Try to join them in their divine worship. Pray for their protection. Ask them to communicate to you the highest of truths from God. Seek to be attentive to these holy angels so that as you learn to discern their voices, you will be ready to follow the direction they give to you from God.

My Lord and Creator of All, You created the angelic order for the glorious purpose of love and worship. You also give them the mission of enacting Your holy will and communicating to us on earth. Please help me to be more aware of the deceptions of the fallen angels and the direction of the good angels. Angels of God, pray for me, protect me and guide me into God's perfect will. Jesus, I trust in You.
