The Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Staying informed:

If you do not have Flocknote, I ask that you to please consider getting the app so you are "in the know!" To secure the Flocknote app, go to stpacc.org/flocknote or text STPACC to 84576.

Parish Mission Reminder:

As part of our parish observance of the Eucharistic Revival, Father Pawel (pronounced "Pavel"), will lead our Parish Mission entitled, "This is My Body...". Father will present three talks, each relating to the Eucharist. I hope you will join us March 17-19. You can read more about our plans for the Parish Mission on page 7.

Catholic Men's Conference recap:

It was a great day for St. Paul the Apostle Parish at the Catholic Men's Conference. St. Paul had the most men of any parish in attendance and served for the second year as the "host parish". With over 100 volunteers from St. Paul, we were able to serve the 2,500 men in attendance from throughout the Diocese of Columbus and beyond. We were also well represented by the Knights of the Holy Temple, our altar serving group. The Knights served Adoration as well as the Holy Mass offered by Bishop Fernandes. I am very grateful for all our parishioners who attended, and in a special way for those who served. We heard great speakers, and I look forward to sharing the talks when they are available.

Sabbatical Presentation:

Many have indicated they'd like to learn more about my recent sabbatical. If you would like to "journey with me", I invite you to view a recording of one of the presentations I gave to members of the parish community.

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

Why Do I Have to Tell Him?

Have you ever wondered how a worm gets inside of an apple? You probably think it digs its way in from the outside, but this would be incorrect. Botanists tell us that the worm comes from the inside. It does so when an insect lays its egg in the apple blossom. Weeks later, the worm hatches in the heart of the apple and then eats its way out. Sin is like a worm. It begins in the heart and works its way out of a person's thoughts, words, and actions. I have been asked many questions throughout my years working in the Church. One question that tops the list revolves around sin and Confession, "Why do I have to confess my sins to a priest?" "I can just tell God I am sorry."

Confession might be one of the most challenging parts of our faith for some. For others, Confession is something they deeply look forward to. First of all, it's true that "God knows everything." We call that omniscience (from the Latin, omnis=all and scire=to know). So, yes, he knows everything we've done, and he knows whether you are sorry for that or not. But there is a big difference between God "knowing" what you did and his act of forgiveness.

For example, if you sinned against a friend with whom you were very close and then felt sorry for that, it's possible that your friend would realize, just by knowing you, that you were genuinely sorry. But that doesn't mean you can presume your friend's goodness and forgiveness. In this situation, the best thing to do is to actually sit down and tell your friend you are sorry and to have your friend tell you that you are forgiven. This very human exchange brings about reconciliation.

So it is with God. God is all merciful and wants to forgive all of our sins. But for true reconciliation to take place, God wants us actually to say those words and then to hear the words, spoken by the priest, that we are forgiven. So, Confession is not only about God forgiving us but also about reconciliation with God on a human level.

What's important to understand is that God offers us forgiveness in his way. He forgives us through a human being. Who is that human being? It's the Father's Son who became one of us. Jesus is the one who offers God's forgiveness, and Jesus is both fully God and man. But how does Jesus do that now that he has ascended into Heaven? Before he ascended, he gave his divine power of forgiveness to his first priests, the apostles. They, in turn, passed that power onto others, who passed it on to others, down through the ages, all the way to our present age. Despite being imperfect, priests have the spiritual power of Jesus to speak his words of forgiveness to others. Therefore, when a priest says, "I absolve you," we hear Jesus himself, as the human face of God, saying those same words to us. We speak to Jesus in the confessional, not Fr. Billy Joe Bob.

Why did God choose to use priests to dispense his forgiveness? Honestly, we don't have a perfect answer to that question. Sure, there have been wonderful writings, reflections, and teachings on this subject throughout the history of the Church. But, in the end, we will only fully understand this mystery of how God gives us his forgiveness when we are in Heaven. For now, we must follow what Jesus taught and receive his forgiveness in the way we know he offers it.

Also, an auricular confession not only helps us on a spiritual level but also on a psychological level. I have witnessed so many people benefit from actually hearing the words of Absolution. When one prays to God and asks for forgiveness, we usually do not hear anything back from our confession. Still, when we enter the confessional and confess to Christ's representatives on earth, we hear and know we are forgiven.

As we continue through this Lenten season, make Confession a priority. Spring cleaning for your soul. Whether you just went last week or it has been forty years, the graces you will receive are abundant. In his works, St. Ambrose discussed the two conversions a person can have in the Church. He said of them, "There is water and tears; the water of Baptism and the tears of repentance."

St. Vincent de Paul Update

The SVDP monthly Pantry Collection will be next weekend, March 9 and 10. The blue bins will be placed in the Narthex of the Church beginning late Friday. This collection will be going to Jenkins, KY to the Sisters of the Missionaries of Charity, who assist the needy in the area. They are requesting canned vegetables, fruit, spaghetti pasta, pasta sauce, flour, sugar, rice, one serving fruits, laundry soap and toilet tissue.

Also, the Holy Family Pantry has a need for sweet and salty snacks. Large bags of cookies and snacks are separated into smaller bags by SVDP conference members. These smaller bags are used in the sack lunches given to the homeless.

Holy Family Pantry is in need of a panel truck with a lift. Please contact Jane Nieman, jane5nieman@gmail.com if you have any information regarding one.

Also, this past week, we received a telephone call from someone needing assistance. Our conference could have used some legal advice. Is there an attorney within the parish that could, occasionally, give us legal advice pro bono? It would basically be us asking a question or two, nothing long term. If so, please contact, Jane Nieman, at the above email. Thank you.

Again, thank you for your prayers and financial support in carrying out the mission of St. Vincent de Paul. God bless you.

Reflecting on the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Lent, March 3, 2024

First Reading: Exodus 20:1-17 Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:22-25 Gospel: John 2:13-25

All four Gospels speak of Jesus' cleansing of the Temple. However, there is a difference between the way this event is portrayed in the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) and in the way it is portrayed in John's Gospel. John's Gospel places this event at the very beginning of Jesus' public ministry during the first of His three annual trips to Jerusalem for the Passover. This was His first attempt at cleansing the Temple. Jesus was also less severe in John's version of the story, stating only that the moneychangers had turned His Father's House into a "marketplace." In the three Synoptic Gospels, this event takes place at the very end of Jesus' public ministry, less than a week before Jesus' death when He returned to Jerusalem for the last time. In those versions, Jesus was more severe, stating that the moneychangers had turned His Father's House into a "den of thieves" and not just a "marketplace." In commenting upon the differences between John's version and the Synoptics, Saint Augustine and Saint Thomas Aquinas believe that they are two different occasions when a similar act of cleansing of the Temple took place.

The Jewish Temple, at the time of Jesus' public ministry, was the place people traveled to each year for Passover to offer the sacrifice of a spotless male lamb in commemoration of the first Passover in Egypt when God set the Jews free from slavery. During this annual celebration, Jewish families who traveled to Jerusalem would purchase a lamb for sacrifice. At the appointed time, they slaughtered the animal in the courtyard of the Temple and then presented it to the priest who gathered some of the blood and sprinkled it on the altar, and then removed the skin, organs and fat to be burned in sacrifice. The meat was returned to the family and roasted on a pomegranate branch so that they could feast on it as they recalled the saving action God granted their ancestors in Egypt.

Today, we see the Jewish Temple as a symbol and prefiguration of Christ, the New Temple Who is also the priest and the Lamb of Sacrifice. Recall, also, that at Jesus' death, the veil of the Temple was torn in two, opening it up to the whole world so that all may share in the Sacrifice of the Lamb of God. We are now invited into this Holy of Holies to share in the new life of grace accomplished by His Sacrifice. Since the grace of this Sacrifice of our Lord enters into each and every heart that believes, to cleanse and purify, then every person receiving this grace becomes a new dwelling place of God, a member of His new Temple, the Body of Christ.

When Jesus came to the Passover feast and witnessed the buying and selling of these animals in the Temple, He drove them out with much zeal. It was clear that this holy celebration of the Passover had become less of a celebration of faith and more of a marketplace for profit. Jesus' action is also a symbol of the zeal with which He now seeks to cleanse the temple of your soul. At first, when sin and disorder pervade our souls, our Lord may take the approach of a gentle rebuke, as He did in His first cleansing of the Temple in John's Gospel. If we persist in our sins, then our Lord will become more zealous in His cleansing as He was in His final attempt to cleanse the Temple the week before He died.

Reflect, today, upon this twofold cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem by our Lord and apply Jesus' sacred actions today to your own soul. Are there new sins that you have fallen into recently that require a gentle rebuke from our Lord? Are there sins that Jesus has been revealing to you for years now that you obstinately persist in? Allow Him to rebuke you in love and to cleanse you so that His saving Sacrifice as the Lamb of God will indeed purify you, and allow His judgment and wrath to "passover" you this Lent.
