Choir Anthem Lyrics

Offertory Anthem - Rejoice In The Lord

"Rejoice in the Lord!" I will say it again, "Rejoice!"
"Rejoice in the Lord!" I will say it again, "Rejoice!"
Do Not let your heart be troubled, for God knows your deepest longings.
Let the peace of God protect your heart and mind.
(repeats)

Peace, peace, God's holy peace will transcend all understanding.

Peace, peace, God's holy peace; God's gracious peace will abide with you.

God's peace will see you through. Rejoice in the Lord, rejoice!

"Rejoice in the Lord!" I will say it again, "Rejoice!" . . .

Canticle of Praise – Fairest Lord Jesus

Fairest Lord Jesus, ruler of all nature, O thou of God and man the Son. Thee will I cherish, Thee will I honor, thou, my soul's glory, joy, and crown. Fair are the meadows, fairer still the woodlands, robed in the blooming garb of spring: Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer who makes the woeful heart to sing. Fair is the sunshine, fairer still the moonlight, and all the twinkling starry host: Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer than all the angels heaven can boast. Beautiful Savior! Lord of all the nations! Son of God and Son of Man! Glory and honor, praise, adoration, now and forevermore be thine.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Staying informed: If you do not have Flocknote, I ask that you to please consider getting the app so you are "in the know!" To secure the Flocknote app, just go to stpacc.org/flocknote or text STPACC to the number 84576.

Clergy Assignments:

This past weekend clergy assignments were announced by the Diocese of Columbus. Father Olvera has been named the Pastor at St. Bernadette Parish in Lancaster (including St. Joseph Church, Sugar Grove). Additionally, Father Antony Varghese, has been appointed to serve as the Administrator at both St. Dominic Church and St. Francis of Assisi Church (both in Columbus). The assignments are effective July 9.

Father Olvera and Father Antony have both made a permanent mark on our parish and they will unquestionably be missed. I am confident that as they move on, they will guide their new parishioners in their faith journey as well.

Please look for more information about our plans to send them off with our heartfelt best wishes. In the meantime, please do keep all our clergy in your prayers.

Safe Haven Sunday:

This weekend, St. Paul, along with the Diocese of Columbus, participates in Safe Haven Sunday, which seeks to address the scourge of pornography and its effects, including human trafficking. It is one of the leading causes of addiction, adultery, divorce, and produces distorted attitudes toward the body. See page 12 of this bulletin for a link to resources.

Our Sunday Offering:

I want to sincerely thank the very many who regularly give of their time, talent, and financial support to our parish. WeShare Online Giving is a secure, and convenient platform. Just text stpaulohio to 800-950-9952 or go online to www.stpacc.org/donate. If you have any questions about your parish offertory or WeShare Online Giving, please contact Parish Accountant Deb Hawking at either dhawking@stpacc.org or 614-882-2109 ext. 229. Thank you!

Sincerely in Christ,

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

The Necessary Sacrament

During the pandemic, many crazy and unfortunate actions took place. However, I will never forget seeing a photo of a priest baptizing a baby by way of a squirt gun. I am hoping that this photo was staged and/or that his bishop saw it and he got into trouble. Even if you have many people to be baptized, this method should never be a viable option. For example, St. Paul the Apostle Parish was blessed to baptize 37 people at this year's Easter Vigil, and no squirt guns were involved. This high number of baptisms begs the question, why do so many people want to be baptized? Why is it so important for parents to have their babies baptized? What does baptism do to us?

Baptism is not merely a ritual or tradition; it is a sacred act instituted by Christ Himself, essential for our initiation into the life of the Church and our journey of faith. In the Gospel, according to Matthew, Jesus commissions his disciples, saying, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19). Here, we see the explicit command of Christ to baptize, emphasizing its importance in the life of every believer.

Baptism marks the beginning of our Christian journey, washing away our original sin and grafting us into the mystical body of Christ. Through baptism, we are reborn as children of God, filled with the Holy Spirit, and incorporated into the Church. Through this sacrament, we become members of the body of Christ, united with Him and one another in a profound and mystical way. Through this sacrament, we receive an "indelible mark" on our souls. This mark can never be removed. We cannot wish or pray it away. We cannot become unbaptized. We also cannot be rebaptized as our Protestant brethren believe.

This debate of "rebaptism" extends to the time of St. Augustine when there was debate as to whether heretics needed to be rebaptized.

Augustine's position on this matter evolved. Initially, Augustine believed in the necessity of rebaptism for heretics. He argued that since heretics were not in communion with the Catholic Church and did not possess the true faith, their baptisms were invalid. Therefore, upon joining the Catholic Church, they needed to be rebaptized to properly receive the grace of baptism. However, as Augustine engaged in further theological reflection and dialogue with other church leaders, his position began to shift. He came to emphasize the unity of the Church and the principle of "one baptism for the forgiveness of sins" (as stated in the Nicene Creed).

It is important to note that baptism is not merely a symbolic gesture but a sacrament imbued with grace, as St. Augustine states. In the waters of baptism, we are cleansed of sin and given new life in Christ. As St. Paul writes in his letter to the Romans, "We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:4). Through baptism, we take off the old and put on the new. Baptism symbolizes our participation in Christ's death and resurrection and imparts the grace necessary for us to live as His disciples.

Baptism is the gateway to the other sacraments of the Church. Through baptism, we are prepared to receive the Eucharist, Confirmation, and the other sacraments that sustain and nourish us on our faith journey. It is the foundation upon which the entire Christian life is built. We must be validly baptized to receive the other sacraments Christ gives us.

Baptism offers hope and light in a world filled with darkness and sin. Through baptism, we are freed from the bondage of sin and welcomed into the family of God. Pope Francis reminds us, "Baptism is the door of the spiritual life and the gateway to the sacraments. We are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission" (Angelus, 13 January 2019).

Therefore, let us never underestimate the necessity of baptism in our lives. Through this sacrament, we are initiated into the life of the Church, marked as Christ's own forever, and empowered to live as His disciples in the world. Let us embrace our baptismal identity with gratitude and live out our faith joyfully, knowing that we are beloved children of God, called to proclaim His kingdom to all nations.

Celebrate Safe Haven Sunday

Priests throughout the Diocese of Columbus are here to provide help and support in overcoming addictions and re-focusing on the vision of God. They make themselves available to you in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Lord's love and mercy is much greater than our sin. There are resources available to help you begin having conversations with your family about these issues as well as ways to overcome addictive behaviors and to protect your families.

This year there is a specific focus on the dangers of pornography and its relationship to the evil of human trafficking. All of the resources can be found on the Diocese of Columbus website by visiting columbuscatholic.org/safe-haven.

Reflecting on the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Easter, April 14, 2024

First Reading: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; Second Reading: 1 Jn 2:1-5a; Gospel: Luke 24:35-48

Imagine if Jesus appeared to you. What if He showed you the wounds in His hands and feet and invited you to touch Him so as to believe. Would you believe? Most likely you would, to a certain extent. It would be the beginning of an experience that could be life-changing, just as it was for these disciples. Our Lord's appearance to the disciples led to their transformation from men who were confused and doubtful to men who were filled with joy and zeal. Eventually, they would go forth preaching about Jesus as witnesses to His death and Resurrection with courage and with a desire that all who heard them would turn to Jesus as their Savior.

In the first reading of today's Mass, Saint Peter is recorded as doing this very thing. After healing a crippled man at the gate of the Temple, a crowd gathered in amazement and Peter preached to them about Jesus. He concluded His sermon by saying, "God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

Today, we are entrusted with the same mission given to our Lord's disciples, and we must preach with the same zeal, courage and conviction with which they preached. First, we must become as certain as they were about Jesus' triumph over sin and death. We must turn from all sin and believe that the fullness of life is found only in Christ Jesus. But then we must commit ourselves to the proclamation of this faith with every fiber of our being.

Begin by considering how deeply you believe in Jesus as the Savior of the World. Though it might be tempting to think that having Jesus appear to you in person would help deepen your faith in Him, the truth is that the first disciples were not primarily convinced because of the physical appearances of Jesus. Rather, this gift came primarily through the spiritual touching of their minds. After appearing to the disciples physically, we read that Jesus "opened their minds to understand the Scriptures."

This was what convinced them more than anything—the spiritual gift of understanding. And that gift is offered to you today, just as it was to the first followers of Jesus.

Saint Thomas Aquinas explains that the spiritual gift of understanding is a gift that reveals to us the very essence of God. He explains that it is a much deeper form of knowledge than that which is obtained through our five senses. Thus, simply seeing something with our eyes, touching it or hearing it is not nearly as convincing as the knowledge obtained through the spiritual gift of understanding. The gift of understanding enables us to "read inwardly" and to penetrate the very essence of something. For that reason, the physical appearance of Jesus might have been the first step toward believing, but it wasn't until these same disciples encountered our Lord within their souls, perceiving the very essence of His Resurrection inwardly, that they were forever changed. Only this form of knowledge could then convince them to go forth and proclaim the message of salvation.

Reflect, today, upon your own knowledge of Jesus and the transforming power of His Resurrection in your life. Has God spoken to you within the depths of your soul? Have you perceived this inward knowledge and had your mind opened? Listen attentively to our Lord—not just with your ears but primarily with your spirit. It is there, within you, that you, like the first disciples, will come to know and believe in the life, death and resurrection of Christ so that you can then go forth empowered to proclaim these truths to others.

My revealing Lord, You showed Yourself to Your disciples not only physically but spiritually, revealing Your very essence to them interiorly. Please bestow this gift upon me, dear Lord. May I come to know You and believe in You with all my heart. As I do, please use me as an instrument of Your mercy to others. Jesus, I trust in You.
