Offertory – I Will Be a Child of Peace

O Holy Father, I will be a child of peace and purity, for well I know, Thy hand will bless the seeker after righteousness.

Post-Communion – I Know That My Redeemer Lives

I know that my Redeemer lives, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though my body be destroyed,
And though my body be destroyed, Yet in my flesh shall I see God. Alleluia, alleluia, I know that my Redeemer lives . . .

Now we see in a glass dimly, but then, face to face;
Now I know in part, but then I shall know as I am known. Alleluia, alleluia, I know that my Redeemer lives

Pray for Those Newly Confirmed:

Saturday, we celebrated the Confirmation of youth from our school and PSR program. In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized person is "sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit" and is strengthened for service to the Body of Christ. This sacrament is called Confirmation because the faith given in Baptism is now confirmed and made strong. Please pray that our young people continue to strong grow spiritually and become true disciples of Christ.

Discover FORMED:

FORMED is a really dynamic online platform that provides access to great Catholic audio talks, movies, eBooks, inspirational presentations, study programs, and wonderful programs for children of all ages as well. It's been described as a free "Catholic Netflix." I highly recommend it. It's quite easy to access FORMED. Simply go to stpacc.org/formed to learn more.

Our Sunday Offering:

I want to sincerely thank the very many who regularly give of their time, talent, and financial support to our parish. WeShare Online Giving is a secure, and convenient platform. Just text stpaulohio to 800-950-9952 or go online to www.stpacc.org/donate. If you have any questions about your parish offertory or WeShare Online Giving, please contact Parish Accountant Deb Hawking at either dhawking@stpacc.org or 614-882-2109 ext. 229. Thank you!

THE CATECHETICAL CORNER

Are You Sure It Isn't a Goose?

When I was in second grade, my class was preparing for our First Holy Communion. We were playing a speed round of Catholic questions and answers. We all had to stand next to our desks and the teacher would go around the room asking everyone a question about the faith. It was timed, so you had to answer fast. If you got it correct and within time, you lived to see another round. If you got it wrong or took too long to answer, you had to sit back down at your desk. The last one standing was the winner. As my teacher was moving about the class, one of my classmates was asked, "What animal descended upon Jesus during his baptism?" Without missing a beat, he proudly yelled out, "a goose!" Well, that was incorrect, and it got a chuckle from the class. For some reason, it was one of those moments that I clearly remember and will never forget. In the Gospels according to Matthew and John, we read that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove. Such an outpouring of the Holy Spirit happens to each of us at our baptism. Still, this unique and total outpouring of the Holy Spirit also occurs at another Sacrament.

Confirmation, what is it? Is it just a lovely ritual when you reach eighth grade? Is it graduation from religious education classes? Both of those questions have a resounding "no" for their answers. Confirmation can be confusing at times. Perhaps the name itself can be misleading. It is thought, at times, that Confirmation is your opportunity to "confirm" your faith. Well, yes, you certainly must do this as you receive this sacrament. But this does not get to the heart of Confirmation. Confirmation is not so much about you confirming your choice to be Catholic; it's about God the Holy Spirit confirming you. It's much more something that God does to you and your eternal soul than something you do for God or even yourself.

Like Baptism, Confirmation changes your soul. You receive a spiritual character (an indelible mark) on your soul, which becomes a permanent source of grace for you throughout eternity. It's God's way of making a permanent commitment to you by deepening His covenant made to you at Baptism. You cannot remove this mark. You cannot be "unconfirmed."

On Saturday, we celebrated the Confirmation of our School and PSR students. These young men and women are now sealed with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. They are to use these gifts to defend their faith and themselves. The final Sacrament of Initiation is meant to prepare and strengthen you in life's journey and battles. Before Vatican II, and even today in the Tridentine Rite, when the Bishop confirmed men and women, he gave them a little slap on the cheek to rouse them up and prepare them for battle as soldiers of Christ. This is never more apparent than Pentecost when the apostles received the Holy Spirit. They were sent to foreign lands to preach and teach Christ to all. Many of them died during their missions. They were soldiers for Christ and would not stop until his name was heard everywhere. This is what we must do today. By virtue of our Baptism and Confirmation, we must go out into the world and preach Jesus Christ and the Church. Many will hate us for it. Jesus never said this life would be easy.

Whether the Holy Spirit is in the form of a dove or a goose, we must enter into a relationship. The Holy Spirit has great plans for us and will give us all we need to fulfill those plans of God. I want to end with a beautiful prayer to the Holy Spirit. This is a prayer that could be said every day. Pray the entire prayer each morning, and then throughout the day, repeat the first three words: "Come, Holy Spirit." Pray those words as you walk, as you drive, as you do chores, and every time they come to mind. If you can establish this habit, you will be amazed at how close you become with God the Holy Spirit.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Your love. Send forth Your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the Earth.

O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Update from Deacon Mickey Hawkins

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ. I haven't communicated much throughout the Advent and Lenten Seasons. St. Paul Parish was a special place for me through Christmas and Easter.

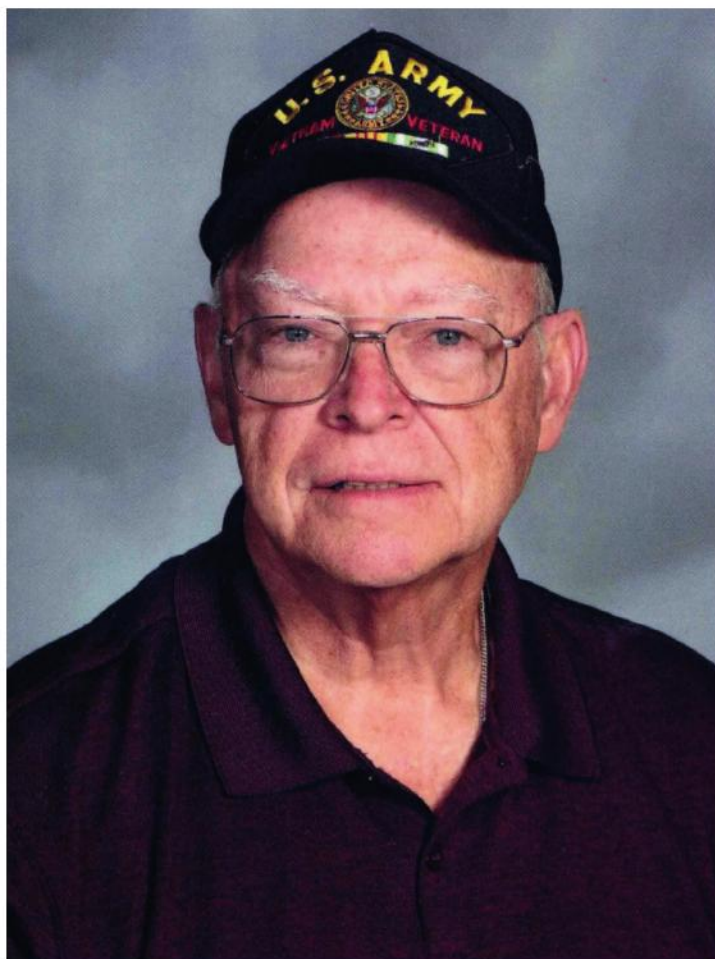

I was very sad that I was not able to assist at the Vigil, especially with the anointing of 67 Confirmandes. The Holy Spirit really worked overtime this year. Assisting at the Chrism Mass was spiritually fulfilling, being with my brother clergy and was able to assist at the noon Mass on Easter. God Is Good!

To report on my health, I had a scheduled follow-up on April 2nd. Patty and I refer to my Oncologist as our personal angel. The results of my bloodwork confirmed the expected diagnosis: the chemo treatments are no longer effective. Honestly, 19 months of chemo and radiation therapies, have exhausted any medical options. I am now in the care of Hospice, Pain Management Staff. With confidence I say "more angels". For all of you that know me, from family, faith and friends, I will not give up or give in. I will carry on with my love for family and friends and perform whatever diaconal duties that my health allows.

God bless you for all your loving support and prayers throughout my journey. You have provided the hope and strength that enabled my family and me to know God's presence in all the good days and bad days that are a normal part of battling cancer.

God bless you and keep you safe in HIS loving arms.

Deacon Mickey

Items needed include canned soups, canned and individual servings of fruit, canned chili, toothpaste and brushes, toilet paper, non-refrigerated milk, cereal, pretzels, crackers, bags of cookies and sweet and salty snacks. These items are given out daily, however, any food item or toiletry is appreciated. The homeless at Holy Family need small toiletry items.

Thank you for your support in prayer and in donations. The number of people in need is growing each week and our calls to the helpline are increasing daily. Again, thank you for your generosity.

CONNECTING THE WORD OF GOD TO OUR LIVES

From www.mycatholic.life

Reflecting on the Gospel for the Fifth Sunday of Easter, April 28, 2024

First Reading: Acts 9:26-31; Second Reading: 1 Jn 3:18-24; Gospel: John 15:1-8

Pruning a vine is an important part of helping it to grow and produce not only more fruit but the best fruit. If left unpruned, a grape vine will eventually produce less fruit and poorer quality fruit. Good pruning helps to direct the nourishment of the vine to the new buds that are most fruitful.

Jesus' teaching above uses the imagery of pruning a vine to help us understand that faith must lead to charity. First, Jesus says that He is the "true vine." He is the only source of the nourishment we need for the new life of grace. He is the only way to Heaven and salvation. Knowing our Lord and being attached to Him firmly is faith. Second, our Lord says that He takes away every branch that does not bear fruit. This indicates that faith without the good fruit of charity is dead and is like a branch on a vine that produces nothing. Third, when Jesus finds a branch that bears good fruit, he doesn't leave it alone. Instead, He prunes it with loving attention so that "it bears more fruit."

To apply these teachings to your own life, begin by looking at your faith as if it were a branch firmly attached to a vine. Do you believe all that God has spoken through His holy Word? It is useful to regularly examine your conscience in regard to your faith. Since faith is the first step in the spiritual life, it must remain firmly grounded in the Truth God has revealed. This means we must regularly study the Word of God as it is revealed through the Scriptures and the catechetical teachings of the Church, and assent to those teachings with all our mind.

Next, after affirming your faith in all that God has spoken through the Scriptures and the Church, try to examine your charity. Do you see concrete acts of love in your life that result from your faith? In other words, we can "love" many things in a purely emotional sort of way. But charity is based on faith, not on how we feel. Charity is the fruit of faith. What acts of charity can you point to in your life? What have you sensed God calling you to do in a selfless and sacrificial way? Have you done it?

Finally, when you discover the ways that charity is alive within you, know that God will focus His pruning there. Pruning can be painful. It will require sacrifice, patience in the face of trial, overcoming selfishness, and doing things you don't feel like doing. In fact, sometimes God even makes charitable acts seem unpleasant as a way of pruning your motivations and making them more pure, based more on faith than on emotion. But this is good.

Reflect, today, upon this holy imagery from Jesus. It's a lesson from nature that reveals the supernatural life of grace at work. Don't be deterred by the pruning God wants to do. Embrace suffering with love, respond to injustice with forgiveness, offer mercy when you don't feel like it, and seek to serve selflessly those who seem undeserving. Doing so will prune you so that God will be able to build up His Kingdom in glorious ways through you.

Jesus, most glorious Vine, You and You alone are the source of all nourishment in life. From You all good things come. Help me to have a firm faith in You and all that You have revealed, so that this faith will bud forth and bring about an abundance of good fruit for the glorious building up of Your Kingdom. Jesus, I trust in You.
